TEN LITTLE INDIANS™

The Train clatters along the lines rain steadily you stare out of the window at the seemingly endless countryside rolling by Soon you will reach your destination and then you will receive the opportunity to bring into play your famous investigative talents. For a moment you wonder whether or not you have the talent that will be needed on this case even as now the national press released news of the fantastic fortune to be discovered in the old Mansion of Major Johnston Smythe. Treasure hunters have tried their luck most of them have never been heard of again

As the Train begins to slow down you prepare yourself for what is ahead by mentally recapping all the information you have gathered so far about the famous treasures.

The Major was a cunning old fox in order to make it virtually impossible for anyone to inherit his fortune he had put all his money into Gold cast into the form of a Figurines or Idol. He then had this away and hid it no-one of a whereabouts. Further to this he commissioned Ten more 8 guineas to be made of various materials and although worth less in themselves they were for some reason absolutely essential in order to obtain the main prize. Shortly after this the Major died and his jealous Nephew made public the information he had obtained about the Major's activities

The Train finally stops now your task begins in earnest. Can you succeed where so many others have failed or will death be your only prize?
